

Miss Stachowicz
In Leading Role
Of 'La Tosca'

Torrance friends of Miss Wanda Stachowicz, former resident at 1437 Post ave., recently were advised of her current engagement with a New York opera company in the role of Floria Tosca, in the opera "La Tosca." She was supported by an all-star cast, a grand chorus and a symphony orchestra.

Miss Stachowicz was educated in Torrance schools and upon her return from Milan, Italy, where she studied for several years and made her operatic debut, was the incentive for a city-wide reception.

FELKERS ENTERTAIN AT BALBOA COTTAGE

Mrs. M. N. Felker, who with her daughters Sharon and Andrea has been vacationing at Balboa, recently entertained Mrs. J. T. Oursler as her house guest for a week. During the weekend the ladies were joined by Messrs. M. N. Felker and J. T. Oursler and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Roberts. Mr. and Mrs. John Melville spent last weekend as the Felkers' guests.

AT J. H. FESS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Fess are entertaining as their house guests Capt. and Mrs. Rudolph Hubbell and son David, of Cristobal, Canal Zone, Panama. The guests, who leave Sunday for New York City, plan to sail for Panama about Sept. 1. Another recent visitor at the Fess home, was their son, Lt. Kenneth B. Fess, who was on a cross-country flight from his base at Chanute Field, Ill.

C. D. A's Outline
Varied Activities
At Recent Meeting

Grand Regent Frances Forester conducted her initial meeting of the year when Court St. Catherine of the Catholic Daughters of America met last Monday evening at the Church of the Nativity parish hall.

Mrs. Forester called upon chairman Lillian Schott, program; Marguerite Melville, ways and means, and Carole Weber, study club, who outlined their plans for the ensuing year. Mrs. Melville discussed the Court-sponsored doll booth at the bazaar to be held in October.

At the close of the business session refreshments were served by Edith Owens with the assistance of Josephine Bruhanski, Eleanor Schmock and Opal Yorker.

Mrs. Edith Owens will be chairman of a basket social to be held by the Catholic Daughters of America, Court St. Catherine, at the Church of the Nativity parish hall on Sunday evening, July 27 at 6:30 o'clock.

The members of the Court are inviting their friends to join them at the basket supper to be followed by a most entertaining program planned by Mrs. Owens. All of the proceeds from the affair will go toward the building fund of the Catholic school to be erected soon.

Laguna Beach
Is Setting For Study Club Meet

The executive board of the Friday Morning Study club held its most recent meeting at the Laguna Hotel.

Mrs. Durr, the hostess, provided corsages placed beside each place card, while the center of the table was decorated with a lovely potted plant.

The president, Mrs. Elmer Higgs, presided over the meeting held in the patio prior to luncheon.

Further plans were made for the club's second annual picnic, to be held at Cabrillo Beach Aug. 15, at which Dr. William Loyd will speak on Marine Life. Luncheon to begin at 11:30 a. m., will be pot luck. Each member is expected to supply her individual table service. Coffee, tea and cake will be served by the club. Telephone reservations are being taken by Mrs. Elmer Higgs, Mrs. Gordon Shalenderger and Miss Helen Cole.

ARROWHEAD VACATION

Guests of Mrs. Harwood Clark at her Arrowhead cottage this week were Mrs. John W. Beeman and children Jackie and Janet. Janet remained as Mrs. Clark's guest for an additional week when her mother and Jackie returned home Sunday.

Garden Club Members Conclude Season At Wednesday's Meeting

The members of the Torrance Terrace Garden Club gathered Wednesday in the lecture room of Torrance City Library for their final meeting of the season. Mrs. Arthur Fritz, president, conducted the meeting and introduced a new member, Mrs. Margaret P. Dyke, of 1639 W. 216th st.

The history of flowers which grew in Biblical times provided an interesting topic. That most of the flowers familiar to today's garden lovers were grown in early days was of interest to the club members.

The meeting was adjourned until Wednesday, Sept. 10.

CATHOLIC LADIES ARRANGE CARD PARTY

Hostesses for this evening's Catholic card party are Miss Rosa Orman and her committee, Miss Katherine Orman and Mesdames Stapelfeld, Shauer, Schroeder, Derouin, Vonderahe, Newton, Finlayson, Mondor and LeBlanc.

A cordial invitation is extended to everyone. Refreshments will be served.

Cub Scouts Plan
Annual Picnic At Torrance Park

Cub Scouts of Pack No. 241, sponsored by St. Andrew's church, will hold its annual picnic at Torrance City park Friday, July 25, at 5:00 p.m. All members and their families are invited to attend. Games of all types will be played including boat races, bag jumping, watermelon eating contest, father and son contests, baby sisters' and brothers' races and a tug-of-war. Families are asked to furnish basket lunches. The committee will supply watermelon and coffee. Fun for all is promised.

MILES, HUTCHERSONS RETURN FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Miles, accompanied by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hutcherson, returned Saturday from two weeks' vacation with Corinth, Ky., as their destination. Accompanying them on their return trip was Mr. Hutcherson's mother, Mrs. Brent Hutcherson, of Corinth, who will remain with her son's family for an indefinite visit. Highlights of the vacation trip were a visit with relatives at Stockton, Kans. and a tour of Carlsbad Caverns, New Mexico.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Following the regular meeting of Torrance Chapter No. 44, Women of the Moose last night delicious refreshments were served to a large gathering of members and their guests.

The annual picnic for members of the Moose lodges of the southland and their families will be held Sunday, July 27, in Orange County Park. A large representation of Torrance members will attend. A special bus will leave from Moose Hall, 1951 Carson st. For further information, please call Torrance 36.

Moose Lodge No. 785 will hold open house on the evening of Wednesday, July 30. Moose members and their friends are cordially invited. A fine military drill team from Long Beach will be a special attraction. Home made pie and other refreshments will be served. All are invited.

Signed: Dorothy Smith, publicity chairman.

MULTIPLE BORDERS

Most Oriental rugs have several borders, with seven being a popular number among the weavers of fine Persian rugs. The carefully designed borders add greatly to the beauty of Oriental rugs.

Bickel-Lindeman
Vows Are Recited
In Church Ceremony

The marriage of Marion Buckley Lindeman to Thomas W. Bickel in the chapel of First Baptist church July 18, 1947, was announced this week. The Rev. C. Miles Northrup performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Bickel has been a resident of Torrance for the past 20 years, and formerly was employed at the Automatic Printing Co.

Mr. Bickel, formerly with the Indian Hill Realty Co. of Winnetka, Ill., is now an associate broker with I. J. Hallanger, realtor, in Torrance.

They will be at home at their residence in the Hollywood Riviera section of Torrance after Aug. 15.

JANET POH IS FETED
